

NIGEL WEARNE

DIRECT LICENSING POLICY

Nigel Wearne Direct Licensing Policy

Public Performance and Transmission Rights

These are the direct licensing guidelines for the releases of Nigel Wearne.

If you wish to use a sound recording or music video owned and/or controlled by Nigel Wearne (“Nigel Wearne Catalogue”) for the purposes of public performance or transmission, you will require a licence to do so.

Nigel Wearne does not offer direct licensing for public performance and/or transmission of the Nigel Wearne Catalogue at this time due to the unjustifiable legal and administrative expenses involved.

If you require a licence for the public performance or transmission of any of the Nigel Wearne Catalogue please contact the Phonographic Performance Company of Australia (PPCA) on (02) 8569 1111 or www.pcca.com.au.

If you wish to provide any feedback or comments on our direct licensing policy, please email amy@iheardjango.com.

Other licences not available through PPCA

Please contact Nigel Wearne should you require a licence for the following purposes:

- Licences for DJs
- Licences for samples, mixes or mashup CDs
- Licences for on-demand “streaming”
- Synchronisation licences for music for film or television
- Licences for CD or DVD Compilations

To enquire about any of the above licenses, or any other licenses not covered in this policy, please contact Amy Laidlaw via amy@iheardjango.com.